

Submarine Force Museum Boy Scout Scavenger Hunt

Welcome. During your journey through the museum this scavenger hunt will help you learn how the 12 values found in the Scout Law tie into the history and heritage of the U.S. Navy Submarine Force. For each object fill in the blank with information found in the exhibits and write in what value is best represented. (Hint: Each is only used once)

2. Harman Automatic Steerman Device

Here the _____ steers the rudder while the _____ operates the stern plans. As they are maneuvering the submarine, but cannot see where it is going it is important they follow orders, demonstrating the value of being _____

This device was more _____ than the Sperry Company's autopilot. So by adopting it the Navy demonstrated the value of being _____

4. CAPT John Philip Cromwell

Born in _____ he earned the Medal of Honor for _____. By refusing to abandon his companion he demonstrated the value of being _____

He stayed aboard his sinking submarine because he possessed knowledge of _____. By giving up his life rather than risk giving up secrets he had been entrusted with he demonstrated the value of being _____

CDR Eugene Fluckey commanded the USS Barb during WWII. The train depicted on the flag represents _____ making them the only Allied forces to invade the _____. By preserving artifacts like these to commemorate the heroic deeds of past crews, this museum demonstrates the value of being _____

6. Bushnell's Turtle

Sergeant _____ of Lyme, CT was chosen to operate Bushnell's Turtle during its attack on the British fleet. By being the first submariner to launch an attack against an enemy using an experimental vessel and experimental weapons he demonstrated the value of being _____

1. Ship Control Panel

3. Torpedoman Henry Breault

5. USS Barb Battle Flag

Submarine Force Museum Boy Scout Scavenger Hunt

Choose the object, story or person you learned about in the museum that you think best represents the Boy Scout Motto, “Be Prepared”, and explain why you think so here:

8. Greetings from the North Pole

Due to President _____’s back injury, this elevator was especially constructed for his visit aboard SSBN 610. By accommodating someone’s disability the crew demonstrated the value of being _____

7. Elevator

The crews of the _____ and the _____ played the world’s first polar _____ game and greeted Santa Claus. By having fun, visiting each other and the North Pole’s most famous citizen, these crews demonstrated the value of being _____

9. USS Skipjack Memo

10. Black and White Doll

What material was this memo attempting to obtain? Answer: _____
By keeping his sense of humor and making light of an uncomfortable situation CDR Coe demonstrated the value of being _____

This black and white doll was used as a simple _____ by the crew of the Seafox. By assisting the crew in this way we can see that even a doll can demonstrate the value of being _____

11. City Beneath the Sea

12. VADM Levering Smith

Food is prepared for the crew in the _____ and served at tables in the crew’s _____. Both of these are areas where it would be very important to practice the value of being _____

Well known for his _____ approach to each goal, he was a _____ individual who respected those he worked with. Because of all he accomplished by treating others in a considerate way, he is a good example of the value of being _____